LEADING HOUSES AND BANKS VICTIMIZED.

FLIGHT OF THE FORGER.

Late yesterday afternoon a rumor was in circulation through Wall-st, that a leading speculator in stocks and gold had forged checks on the Continental and other banks to a very large amount, and after converting them into available funds at some of our leading banking houses, where his credi umor proved correct. The individual referred to is one John Exchange-place.

He has for some time past been known to the operators in and around the Gold Room and Exchange, and has previously borne a good name among moneyed men. It is only within the past few months that his operations in gold and stocks have assumed any magnitude.

Authough the amount of his forgeries will not by any means sompare with these of young Ketchum, they are yet sufficiently large to create an excitement throughout the moneyed bricles of the city.

semply large to create an excitement throughout the moneyed sircles of the city.

So late in the day was it before his forgeries became known that our reporter was unable to assertain the names of all the firms whom Ross has victimized, but those mentioned below it is beheved comprise the larger portion.

At 23 o'clock p. m., vesterday. Mr. Albert Speyer, dealer in yold and stocks, received from the Fourth National Bank two theeks for $64,900 each, proporting to be signed by him, certified by the bunk, and signed and indersed by John Ross. Both pleeks bore the same No. The bank officers state that their certification of the checks is a tergery. Mr. Speyer, also states that this signature is a forgery. The checks came from the Union or Continental Bank in the regular way of exchange, and had been taken by them on Thesday. They are lithographed, and a fac simile of those used by Mr. Speyer, the Nos. being the same as used by him upon one of his checks a few days since.

At about the same hour Howe & Macy, bankers and brokers at No. 22 Wallest, received from the Leather Manufacturers' Benk two checks for $54,000 each, in currency, purporting to have been drawn by them and received in the way of exchange by the above bank from the Union and Continental Banks. They were made payable to the order of John Ross, and were perfect coasterfeits of the style of check used by by the firm, the revenue stamps on them bearing the name of the firm, the firm, the firm, the firm, the firm of the firm, the firm of the firm o

Both were forged.

A few weeks since Ross paid into the hands of Groesbeck & Co., brokers, of No. 30 Broad-st., a large amount of money to se invested in Michigan Central Ralirond bonds. These bonds are very plain, and easily counterfeited. The bonds were purhased and delivered to Ross. Two weeks since, he called on dr. Groesbeck, and, stating that he wanted to borrow some oney, left as security what purported to be some of the bonds surchased for him by the firm. The money was loaned him, and the bonds taken. The bonds left by him as security now reve to be forged. He has also, it is stated, borrowed other ams from the firm.

prove to be forzed. He has also, it is stated, borrowed other mans from the firm.

On Tuesday Ross called upon J. S. Cromise & Co., broker s at No. 27 Wall-st, where he was well known, and purchased Ke 606 in gold, in payment for which he tendered a check for $64,000 on the Continental Bank, where he was known to be a depositor, and which hore the certification of the bank. This schon was correct. The bank returned for answer that it was. The cheek was by the firm subsequently deposited in the Bank of the Commonwealth, and in the regolar course of exchange reached the Continental Bank vesterday, where the certification was pronounced a forgery. It is a question of veracity at present between the firm and the bank. The former claim that the bank officers informed their messenger when sent with the check that the certification was correct. This the bank denice.

At 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon Ross purchased from Black & Spelding, gold brokers, of No. 19 Broad-st., $50,000 in gold, and gave them, also, a check for $64,000 on the Continental Bank in payment for the same. This was deposited by the firm in the Leather Manufacturers' Bank. Yesterday morning this was sent back to the firm by the bank on which it was drawn, with the announcement that, like the others, the certification was a forgery.

It was also stated on the street that the Continental Bank to his credit in the bank, and drawn against them to a large smount.

The most conflicting rumors were circulated. Scarcely a prominent firm in the banking or brokerage business but were stated to have been victimized by Ross to a greater or less extent. The amount of his operations were variously estimated at frem $200,000 to $800,000; some credulous individuals even goolecturing that it might reach a million.

The steamer Persia of the Cunard line, which sailed at 45 reiock p. m. yesterday, for Liverpool, was thoroughly searched from bow to stean, before her departure, but no trace of the culprit could be found. Many professed to believe that he had gone to Canada, but could ascribe no reason for their beidef. Late in the afternoon a rumor prevailed that he had been caught somewhere in New-Jersey; but this, like most of the other romors, could be traced to no definite source.

Hamediately after the fact of the forgeries became known to the persons most concerned, they at once communicated with the police, and the ablest detectives were set upon the track of the fagitive, with what result, they as yet decline to communicated.

EXTENSIVE ROBBERY.

A Safe Opened and Over $15,000 Stolen-Re-

office of Messrs. Gottsberger & Co., No. 52 New Bowers, was on Tuesday night entered by a thief, who forced the front door, and taking from one of the drawers of a forced the front door, and taking from one of the drawers of a desk the key of the safe, unlocked the recepticle and stole its centents, which consisted of a box containing three certified bills of exchange, payable in gold, amounting in the aggregate to $15,347 72 and $100 in Treasary notes. The theft was not discovered notil yesterday morning when Nicholas Hogan, the bookkeeper for the firm, opened the safe and at once ascertained the extent of the loss. On Mr. Gottsberger being notified of the loss he at once suspected that the thief was a young man named Octavic Calzada Duany, a Cuban, who pretends to be the nephew of Mr. Jabez Duany, the partner of Mr. Gottsberger. Search was made for him, and in about two man named Octavic Caizada Duany, it closa, was precious to be the nephew of Mr. Jahez Duany, the partner of Mr. Gottsberger. Search was made for him, and in about two hours Mr. Gottsberger discovered the supected individual in the act of entering the cyster salcon, No. 2 New Chambers-st., dressed in a suit of new clothes. He at once caused the arrest of the suspected man by Officer Allen of the Fourth Precinct, and on being searched at the Scation-House, a portion of the Treasury notes were found in his possession, but none of the bills of Exchange. It was subsequently ascertained that the prisoner had previously entered the salcon above-mentioned in a state of intexication, and there exhibited the bills of Exchange, and the proprietor, Mr. McPherson, believing he would be robbed if allowed to retain them took them from him for safe keeping. At the time of his arrest, Duany was returning for the stolen property. On proper representations being made to Mr. Mc-Pherson, he at once handed over the property to the owner.

Yesterday aftermoon the prisoner was taken before Justice Hogan and committed for examination. Of the smount stoles the prisoner had only disposed of $20, and that principally for clothing. He is a young man of good address, and speaks the French German, Spanish and Italian languages flaently. On response to questions by the magistrate, he claimed that a portion of the property taken from the safe was his. This, however, is denied by the compisionant, who states that the accused is reckless and dissipated, and has for a long time past defed all efforts of hes friends to retorm him.

Candidates for the Naval Academy-Regulating the Sanitary Condition of the Schools,

The Board met at 5 o'clock last evening, the President, James M. McLean, in the chair.

Mr. MURRAY said that the Hon. Nelson Taylor, M. C. from Mr. MURRAY said that the Hon. Nelson Taylor, M. C. from the Fifth Congressional District of this city, and the Hon. J. W. Chanler, M. C. from the Seventh Congressional District, had appointed the President of the Board of Education, Dr. Webster, and the Special Committee for the care and management of the College of the City of New-York, as a Board of Examiners to select a candidate from the Public Schools of each of said Districts, for the United States Naval Academy. This examination will take place on May 15, at 2½ o'clock p. m., at the Hall of the Board of Education.

By resolution it was referred to the Committee on By-Laws to consider the propriety of extending the usual Summer vacation from five to seven weeks.

Mr. MILLER offered a resolution which was adopted that the School Inspectors of the various districts in the city be requested to use unusual vigilance in the matter of preventing the overcrowding of the scholars in the school-rooms, and that the janitors pay particular attention as to cleanlinees in the schools.

Mr. LANDON offered a resolution which was adopted, au-the jantors pay particular attention as to cleaninees in schools.

Mr. Landon offered a resolution which was adopted, authorizing the Committee on Supplies to furnish at the depositors such disinfectants as may be deemed most efficacious with a view of using all precautionary measures for the general health and sanitary condition of the city, and that the janitors of the various schools be directed to use the same in and about the premises of all the schools where the same may be required.

together with the number of cable feet in such class-room and building used for schools under the direction of this Board. Which was adopted.

The Board took up for action the special order, being the consideration of the report from the Committee on Teachers relative to the nomination of a candidate for the Principalship of the Male Department of Grammar School No. 42, in the Twenty-first Ward.

On motion of the Committee, a report was presented in favor of non-confirming the nemination of A. B. Hally as principal of this school, vice W. H. Wood. It appeared that in January last, Mr. Wood resigned his position as principal, but while the letter of resignation was in the hands of Mr. Stephenson, one of the Trustees of the Twenty-first Ward and not presented, Mr. Wood reconsidered his determination to resign, and asked to permitted to windraw his resignation, which was refused by the local Board, and Mr. Hally was appointed to the position. Mr. Wood alleges that he tendered his resignation which under durees and threats that the Trustees would ask the Board of Education to declare the principalship of the school vacant, and in the meanwhile his salary would be reduced to a more nominal sum.

After a very protracted debate, the report of the Committee was accepted, fourteen voting in the affirmative, four in the negative.

The Board then adjourned.

The Board then adjourned.

Rosanna Lewis, charged with passing counterfeit 50 cent currency, was brought up yesterday before Commis-sioner Stillwell and committed for trial. It appeared that, on Friday last, she pasted one 50 cent stamp, and, on Monday evening, she offered mother. An officer was called in, who found her fumbling with her dress, and picked up another of the counterfeit stamps. Her explanations were contradictory, and the Commissioner held her for trial.

DEFORE COMMISSIONER OSDORN.

Martin Quirk, charged with possing two $20 notes, was brought up for preliminary examination. After some evidence identifying him as the man who passed the notes, the matter was adjourned to Friday text.

ALLEGED FRAUES ON THE INTURNAL BEVENUE.

Another Extradition Case-Alleged Forgery IN PRUSSIA -- In the United States Commissioners' Office, before Commissioner Newton, yesterday, in re the Extradibefore Commissioner Newton, yesterday, in re the Extradition of Ferdinand Buccahe.—The prisoner in this matter was arrested on Wednesday morning on board the steamer Louisians, charged with a forgery committed in the Grand-Duchy of Meckleuberg-Schwerin. The arrest was made upon the requisition of Frederick Kühne, the Consul for that place. It appears that, while he started eight days aleal of justice, the officers, with great energy, by taking the Scotia finanged to anticipate his arrival by two hours, 19 that, on his arrival, he was confronted by the officers from whom he fied. The complaint acts forth that the prisoner forged, at Mecklemberg-Schwerin, bills in the name of the ropeunker, Eggert, of Wismar, to the extent of 20,000 Prussian thalely, one of them being for $500, passed on the house of Schregel at Wismar, and asks that he be delivered up, under the Convention between the United States and Prussia and other Convention between the United States and Prussia and other Convention between the delivery up of fugnitives from Justice. He was brought up for examinating resterday on this charge, Mr. H. D. Lapaugh and in Consul, Mr. Fredetick Kühne, appearing for Mecklenberg; but the Commissioner, finding him suprovided with counsel, postponed the examination to the loth inst., to give him an opportunity to provide himself with one.
